LAUNCHING THE L. H. S. "EAGLE"

After twelve years of preparation, including six years of elementary schooling, two years of junior high school, and four years of high school, the members of the graduating class of 1962 are ready to be launched down the ramp and sent forth on the high seas of life. Here the mighty winds of the world will fill their sails and carry them far out and onward to their destinies.

There will be times that they shall travel over calm and pleasant waves, but there will be other times when the angry sea shall roar and threaten to swallow them. In times such as this, they shall remember and appreciate the guidance of their loving harbor masters - their parents, teachers, and friends. The things that they have been taught shall serve as a compass to lead them ever onward to safety. When they near dangerous shoals, the love and good wishes of those who bid them farewell shall shine like a beacon in the night to guide them.

Where shall they come ashore? Some shall head for the great bays of higher learning. Others, perhaps, shall remain nearer the quiet inlets of their own homes. Each must make his own choice; each must pilot his own ship.

Wherever they go the class of 1962 shall carry with them the memory of their alma mater and their fellow classmates and friends. They shall never forget the good times they enjoyed here; the clubs they took part in, the classes, the ball games, the dances, and the other activities. All of these shall stand out in their minds as the happiest and most carefree times of their lives.

Let us look back with them, now, over this past wonderful year at our own Lumberport High School.

Jessie Taylor presents Eagle Annual awards to her top officers, Editors Richard Robinson and Vonda Byrd, Business Manager, Terry Zinn.

The Eagle is finished and the voyage has come to a close. Ahead lies graduation, proms, summer vacation, and for many the plans and preparations for higher education, for others, marriage and occupations. The Eagle staff has sought to build a book which would reflect Lumberport High School 1962. As the halls grow dim, and the classrooms quiet, we hope this book will bring back the events of this year and hold them forever in your memory.

The Eagle Staff

The final copy is ready to be shipped to Dallas, Texas.
